When to sit after Communion??? In general you may sit when the doors of the tabernacle are closed. If you are still praying & would like to remain kneeling, that is, of course, perfectly fine.

Sign-up sheets are out for ministries for Holy Week. Please sign-up. Thank you.

Good Friday is an unusual day. There is no Mass that day and it is the only day we are told to "depart in silence." It is awkward to announce that & even when I have, people often start talking as soon as they are out of their pew or outside. To depart in silence means to think about what we just encountered: The Passion and death of Christ. Please be silent at least until you are in your vehicle.

Why should I go on a Cursillo ... I don't need a retreat? In a conversation between Marcus Grodi and Ralph Martin on The Journey Home, Marcus commented that "there are a lot of people out there who haven't taken a retreat in years, if ever ... in what sense was that an important part of what allowed God to have the space to open you up?" Ralph responded that "giving time to God is something that it's hard for us people to normally do in the busyness of life. There are classes to go to ... there are exams to take and papers to write ... there are jobs to go to ... there are family crises ... there are financial pressures ... there are health pressures ... this, that, and the other thing ... and there is world news ... and we somehow get caught up in the busyness of life ..." Ralph then talked about how it is precisely because of those things that we need to get away on a retreat, so that we can just be quiet and be aware of Who God is and who we are. He knew that he needed to develop that personal relationship with Jesus if he was going to persevere ... that it wasn't going to be enough to just be part of the crowd ...he needed to know Him. How about you? Cursillo Weekends are scheduled at St. Mary Parish in Sutton, NE, on March 31-April 3, 2016. The rites that precede the Liturgy of the Word, namely, the Entrance, the Greeting, the Penitential Act, the Kyrie, the Gloria in excelsis (Glory to God in the highest) and Collect, have the character of a beginning, an introduction, and a preparation.

Their purpose is to ensure that the faithful, who come together as one, establish communion and dispose themselves properly to listen to the Word of God and to celebrate the Eucharist worthily.

In certain celebrations that are combined with Mass according to the norms of the liturgical books, the Introductory rites are omitted or take place in a particular way.
