The Knights of Columbus #4434, would like to welcome its newest member Dan Principato. Dan received his first degree Tuesday June 6th at an Exemplification in Hebron. Please congratulate our newest brother the next time you see him.

The Knights of Columbus is a fraternity that has many free benefits for its members and their family. It also allows Catholic men to help others locally, nationally and globally. Please contact Dan Arner, Randy Prellwitz or any current Knights of Columbus member for further information on how you can make a positive impact in your families life.

The Steubenville Mid-America Conference will be July 21-23. There is an exciting lineup of speakers, musicians and presenters, to challenge Catholic youth to stand firm in their faith, to rely upon the awesome power of Jesus Christ as their guide, friend and Savior, and to show them that faith to the world. For more information or to , register today at www.lincolndiocese.org/pilgrimages/steubenville-youth-conference.

Jesus words to a Benedictine Monk: Make Me the object of all your desires and you will never be disappointed. Seek Me and you will find Me. Ask for the grace of My presence in the inner sanctuary of your soul, and there hold conversation with Me, for I am in you, and you are in Me. I am your life, and apart from Me, all that this earthly life offers you is bitter and unable to satisfy your heart. I have created you and called you to live in My friendship and to long for me on earth until that longing is satisfied in heaven.

In the meantime, for as long as your earthly exile lasts, you have Me in the Sacrament of My love. There you have My Heart; there you can contemplate My Face; there you can hear My Voice; there you can enjoy My friendship and live in My presence. I was no more really present to My Apostles than I am to you at this moment in the Sacrament of My love.¹ Do you believe this?

1. The category of substance does not admit of degrees: a given substance is either fully what it is (e.g. a man, a horse, a dog) or not that thing at all; it cannot be half-man, half-horse, half-dog. This is the basis of the pro-life position: either the embryo is human or not human, and if human, it has the same dignity and deserves the same honor as any human person, regardless of what the accidents--the size, shape, color, weight----may be. Similarly, because the substance of Jesus Christ is present in the Blessed Sacrament, and substance does not admit of degrees, the essential reality of Our Lord is there, neither more nor less than it was for His Apostles. Although His accidents do not appear to us and we see, hear, taste, and touch those instead of bread, the very same Person, in His divinity and humanity, is present in our midst, under the sacramental veil.
